

of all the options we purchased on our new 04 eddie baurer ford excursion(the world's largest SUV).....we love XM radio the most. we have the GPS navigation system on board....we have the DVD rear entertainment system on board along with many other goodies that make the environmentalists turn green.....and, we ordered it with the new 6.0 turbo diesel engine with the allison 5 speed automatic.....4 wheel drive of course and get 18 miles per gallon. and, as you might know, the cost of diesel fuel is at least $.40 per gallon less expensive than regular gasoline! with 45 gallons on board we can cruise 800+ miles on a tank of fuel.....XM radio is feature rich....static free.....and i get to listen to fox radio 24/7(i'm a bill orielly nut) every place i go in this 7500 pound monster truck!....did you know that diesel fuel can be produced from corn and soy beans.....and it's call bio-diesel.....i tried some.....works great and smells neat....like freedom fries!.....like XM radio....very neat.....very AMERICAN.....did i mention that we also use synthetic engine oil in our SUV.....made in AMERICA using man made esters.....no petroleum crude!.....very american.....just like XM radio!.....BUSH/43.....in 04 for another 4.....